2. SHARING OF CLOTHES /10 BAGS OF 50 KG RICE TO THE WIDOWS

The Stichting Chevelyns Care Foundation celebrated the Christmas for the Widows in Enugu State Nigeria. The clothes, donated by the Foundation Humanity First, Youth for Human Rights Zaandam and the Mundo Foundation were sent from the Netherlands to Nigeria, Enugu, and distributed to the widows by volunteers of Chevelyns Care Foundation on the ground. Money and 10 bags of 50kg rice was also shared to them to enable them to enjoy the festive season with their families. The Naira equivalent of 1000 euro was shared to 300 widows as Christmas gifts and the Naira equivalent 430 euro was used to purchase the 10 bags of rice shared to the Widows.

To transport the donated items from the Netherlands to Lagos and down to Enugu State Nigeria came at a cost of 317 euro.

The Stichting Chevelyns Care Foundation maintains an ING current account and the 'kosten zakelijk betalingsverkeer' per month is between 20,85 to 21,93 euros per Month which when calculated for a year came to 250 euro.
